nual reunion at Versailles this week.

A young and promising member of the affairs of the Smith family, which includes all this year playing in such fine luck. Solo Smith was knocked out by a negro pugil named Dixon, from

There have been 175 bush fallings

The spread of yellow fever at Hopkinsville is said to be caused by bad air and dirt. The friends of a Louisville bride from getting her with showers of rice. If this Southern staple can produce such fever it ought to promote another. The matrimonial fever seems barren, but when it strikes at a short visit to the South, the wrong object is usually worse than yellow fever.

Ex-Confederate's Attorney Joe Horn has been appointed by the Democrats to oppose Tom Pettit in the Daviess-McLean senatorial district. The district is a close one with the Republicans and Populists voting together, but the Democrats have a clear majority and will go to war. The nominee is one of the best men in the district and is understood to be playing for a higher stake than the State senate.

Senator Chapman Miller is the only member of the State Senate who has been re-nominated. One member of the House, W. W. Stabenow, of Marcellus, has been nominated for reelection. The others are seen trying to secure some promotion. Of the House members, previous few will be returned, perhaps not more than a dozen. The people appear to have reached a pretty nearly unanimous conclusion about the late unseated "Long Parliament."

Editor Walton in Stanford Journal:
"Lloyd Read was fined $100 at Hop-and it is said as it was an assault to lay hands or lieps either, he'll do none so lightly, on a woman without her consent, he was arrested and tried with the above record, and was sent to jail for 10 days. Some son-of-a-bitch who is a fool who thinks to find any enjoyment in kicking when the kenne subjects objects."

Capt. Smith Cook, better known as the "Kentucky Giant," and Mrs. Lu-cay Barnet, of Hopkinsville, recently Friday, when they will leave for Lawrenceburg, where Capt. Cook will met in its tenth session, and Mrs. J. H.

Hood, Jr., does not know what a dachshund is, you will find upon in vestigation that a dachshund is a GREAT EXCITEMENT.

House Crowded in Overflowing.

There was not standing room last night for the people who want to the great sales at watches and jewelry just opposite the Phoenix. The people are beginning to cut the corners, but the market is good, but the very best in the market and at prices that are simply wonderful. All who have investigated the matter do not hesitate to say that never before has there been such a sale as this.

Wadling's New Lecture was indeed fortunate in being able to inaugurate his lecture course with Mr. Joe, R. Westcott, in his newest and best lecture, "The man of Galilee." Mr. Wadling is the most popular lecturer in the country, and it is well known that he has a large audience in this city, and it is proposed that he has few if any superiors on the platform. Concerning this lecture Mr. Wadling says only this: "It has cost me more of labor and care and time to prepare this lecture than all my other lectures combined, and has been a great labor of love."

Prof. David Siving says: "Great and powerful Ferguson and Cook are it is a great pleasure to turn from both and hear Wadling. He takes his place among the most important in his profession, and I am sure he has few if any superiors on the platform. Concerning this lecture Mr. Wadling says only this: "It has cost me more of labor and care and time to prepare this lecture than all my other lectures combined, and has been a great labor of love."
